

Technical & Commercial Proposal

AI / ML Compute Server

Prepared for	Chinmaya Vishwa Vidyapeeth (Chinmaya College) – IEDC
Attention	IEDC — Innovation & Entrepreneurship Development Cell
Proposal No.	NT-PROP-7734
Date	10 June 2026
Valid Until	10 July 2026
Prepared by	NeoTokyo, Kochi

This proposal presents a turnkey, rack-mountable AI/ML training and inference server purpose-built for the Chinmaya College IEDC. It supersedes reference quotation No. 7733 and details the recommended configuration, rationale, commercials and terms of supply.

1. Introduction

Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for the opportunity to support the Innovation & Entrepreneurship Development Cell (IEDC) at Chinmaya College in building its in-house AI and Machine Learning capability. As the IEDC scales up student research, hackathons and incubated startups, a dedicated GPU server removes the recurring cost and data-governance concerns of public cloud rentals while giving your teams full control over model training, fine-tuning and deployment.

The configuration below pairs a 16-core AMD EPYC server platform with a 48 GB NVIDIA RTX PRO 5000 accelerator and ECC memory on a fully managed Ubuntu + PyTorch/TensorFlow software stack — delivered ready to run from day one, backed by a 3-year warranty.

2. Why This Configuration

48 GB GPU memory	The RTX PRO 5000 (48 GB GDDR7) holds large vision and language models in memory, enabling fine-tuning and batch training that consumer 8–24 GB cards cannot fit.
ECC server memory	128 GB DDR5 ECC RDIMM protects long training runs from silent data corruption — essential for reproducible research.
Tiered storage	Gen4 NVMe for OS, a fast RAID-0 NVMe scratch volume for active datasets, and 8 TB bulk HDD for archives and checkpoints.
Built to run 24/7	Titanium-grade 1600W PSU, liquid CPU cooling and a 4U rackmount chassis suit a lab or server room operating continuously.
Ready-to-use stack	Ubuntu Server pre-loaded with Python, TensorFlow, PyTorch, JupyterHub and Docker — students log in and start working.
